

Happy New Year!

Contributed by Mark R.
Wednesday, 31 December 2008
Last Updated Wednesday, 31 December 2008

Happy New Year MHRA Racers! That's right it's 2009 already, time fly's when your having fun. The 08 season was a blast just like every year. Part of that blast is spilling into the 09 season as we did not finish the 08 season finals due to rain. So January 17 2009 a mere two(2) weeks away we will finish up the 08 season finals. Also that day will be a test and tune for everyone. So come on out and test your new rides, gismos, dowhacks and thingamabobers. Get a jump on your tune for the 2009 season. We will shut the track down for a few minuets to run the 08 finals but in between those shut down times you are welcome to test all you want. So come on out, race, test, or just watch all the fun. We will also talk about any possible rule changes for 2009. Also it is now official, the IMDRA West Cost Nationals will be hosted by the MHRA once again. The West Cost Nat's will be held on April 3,4 & 5 at the MHRA's home track in SanBernadino. Be sure to mark your calenders!. The MHRA's 2009 Race Schedule will be posted along with the new Bay Area MHRA's Race Schedule as soon as dates are confirmed. Happy New Year Racers!!!